

Susan Hillhouse Performing Arts Scholarship

Scholarship Description:

A $1,000 scholarship opportunity for enrolled and full-time active college/university students to apply who are pursuing a performance arts degree (major or minor) or an arts-related teaching degree (major or minor) and intend to stay active in the arts after the receipt of their degree – either as a performer or accredited teacher. One individual will be chosen per year. Students may apply for consecutive years (and that includes students who previously received the scholarship may again apply for consideration). If no candidate is selected, the funds will be held over for the following year/s. This is a ten-year scholarship set up to honor past OCPAG President Susan Hillhouse beginning in 2020.

Requirements:

- 1) Applicant must be enrolled as a full-time student in an accredited college or university arts degree or arts-related teaching degree program.
- 2) Fill out the Susan Hillhouse Performing Arts Scholarship Application Form.
- 3) Submit an essay in your own words how this scholarship would help you, and why you are a performing arts major or arts-related education major/minor.
- 4) Submit a recommendation letter from an instructor/professor.
- 5) Be available for an interview – by either phone, Facetime, digital means or in person.
- 6) An email briefly summarizing the year after receiving the scholarship.

-End of Text-